

THE DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

7 July 1976

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Jarrett
Rte 1,
Java, Virginia 24565

Dear Chick and Emma:

Thank you so much for the nice letter upon the announcement of my new appointment. I am sorry so much time has elapsed since the date of that letter, but I thought it fitting to wait for confirmation and swearing-in before responding as an official Deputy Director of Central Intelligence.

It was good to get all the news. We were sorry to hear that Chick has had some health problems, but we were certainly glad to learn that everything is great for him now. It's also nice to learn that Emmy is keeping the local high school up to snuff. It will be nice to see you and I hope that your travels will bring you to Washington so that we can have a nice get-together and a chat.

Thank you for the invitation to your home. We would like very much to visit you and your farm. All the best and much love from Angie and me, both.

Faithfully yours,
